The Topics in Forensic Science (TIFS) conference will provide multidisciplinary training in the identification, investigation and adjudication of child abuse cases with an update on the Harris County Institute of Forensic Sciences’ pediatric bone health study. Special topics offered include pediatric fracture recognition and ethics in child maltreatment cases.

For more details, including a detailed agenda, visit our website at ifs.harriscountytx.gov/Pages/tifsc.aspx

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?
- Law enforcement officers
- Health care professionals
- Forensic practitioners
- Legal practitioners
- Child care workers
- Educators

REGISTER AND PAY

$70 Registration for two days
(parking costs for each day included in registration fee)

For questions, contact: Jasmine.Jefferson@ifs.hctx.net

Hosted by:

Funded, in part, by:

Continuing Education Credits are being offered.
Visit ifs.harriscountytx.gov/Pages/tifsc.aspx for complete details.